PRICE 5 CENTS

LOUISVILLE RACING BEGINS

FALL MEETING AUSPICIOUSLY INAUGURATED AT HISTORIC CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Program of High Class Attracts Generous Patronago -Prince Ahmed and Mary Davis Reduce Track Records for 1 Mile and 1 1-16 Miles.

Louisville, Ky., September 25.—The Louisville Racing Association began today its fall meeting of eighteen days under auspices most favorable to the success of the sport. In spite of threatening weather, the patronage was generous and the big crowd waxed enthusiastic over the splendid racing that was provided.

The card was probably the best ever offered hereabouts for a fall opening, and engaged most of the cracks in local racing. The high quality of the contestants encouraged spirited speculation in most instances. Prices ruled fairly liberal and the major portion of those speculatively inclined had a profitable as well as enjoyable outing. The racing was brisk throughout, and in some cases it was a difficult matter to prejudge the winner seventy yards from the finish. Track records were reduced in two instances.

itable as weil as enjoyable outing. The racing wasbrisk throughout, and in some cases it was a difficult matter to prejudge the winner seventy yards from the finish. Track records were reduced in two instances.

One of the record-breaking performances came in the St. Leger Handleap, which engaged eight stars of the handleap division. Swannanoa, which T. C.
McDowell left behind expressly to run in this race,
was made a strong favorite on the strength of fast preliminary trials. She ran well, but was not good enough to beat Mary Davis and Cherryola. The former won commandingly after having been a prominent contender throughout. Cherryola, after trailing far back, came with a good rush through the stretch to take second place. Adams Express and Spohn showed high speed for the first threequarters, but both faded away when it came to the real racing. The mile and one-sixteenth was run in 1:44%, reducing Olambala's mark of 1:45.

The preceding race, an allowance affair at threequarters, enabled Prince Ahmed, from the H. G.
Bedwell stable, opportunity to display a high turn of speed when he ran the distance in 1:114, reducing by a fraction the former track record held by Jeff Bernstein. The best sprinters in training opposed Prince Ahmed, and the early paced forced by Herkimer was exceedingly fast. He went the onarter forced he probably could have made a new American record for the distance. The race had its disappointment to the betters on account of the failure of Folile Levy. Her rider was unprepared at the start, and was responsible for her failure to get away in a more forward position.

In addition to winning with Prince Ahmed, H.
G. Bedwell took another purse when Sticker scored in the closing dash, He was lucky to get this purse, as Any Port seemed best in the race, and but for being practically left at the post, would have won by a safe margin. He closed a tremendous gap to beat Colonel Ashmende for second place.

Island Queen showed herself to be a handy racing tool in winning the opener. She i up. Force and J. H. Reed ran as a team for the first three-quarters, but quit in the stretch.

Queen Marguerite showed the way throughout in the fifth race and had much in reserve near the finish. Arcite, the favorite, quit badly in the stretch.

Jockeys Koerner and Loftus divided the riding honors by piloting two winners each. Loftus incurred the starter's displeasure in the third race, and was suspended for five days.

The Kentucky State Racing Commission's rule applying to wires from the track was rigidly observed by the track management to the discomfort of the representatives of the afternoon newspapers. The local afternoon papers transmitted their reports by telephone from outside the track to their respective offices and served the visiting newspapers. The local afternoon papers transmitted their reports by telephone from outside the track to their respective offices and served the visiting newspapers. Francis J. Pons arrived this morning from his farm in Tennessee, He announced that he had again taken up the project of establishing a race track at Charleston, S. C., and would be fully informed on the subject in a week or two. There is a rumor current that the Jacksonville, Fla., track will not be opened this season, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. It is said that several obstacles have cropped up that make the Jackson ville opening impossible. Benjamin Catlett, one of the directors of the Jacksonville track, was among today's visitors, and intimated that the plans to resume racing in Florida had been practically abandoned.

George J. Long, representing the Kentucky State Racing Commission as steward for this meeting.

to resume racing in Florida had been practically abandoned.

George J. Long, representing the Kentucky State Racing Commission as steward for this meeting, was in the judges' stand most of the afternoon. It is said that Mr. Long will take up with Chairman Clay the matter of permitting the newspapers to obtain their legitimate news service as formerly. The two-horse combination, consisting of island Queen and Spindle, paid $277.40 for $2.

Jockey A. Wrispen had the mounts today on horses from H. C. Hallenbeck's stable. It is understood that if his riding suits trainer F. M. Taylor, he will purchase the contract held by Edward Corrigan.

Poils and Princess Calloway were the absentes from the St. Leger Handicap, because of failure to be removed from the cars in time. Both horses were shipped from Lexington this morning.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., September 25.—It is reported that the recent meeting of the Kentucky Association will show a profit of about $2,000. The total amount of money handled through the parl-mutuel machines during the nine days was $270,000, which is $27,51 less than the total in the mutuels and auctions for the nine days in the fail or 1010.

John Bradley, who has been handling yearlings at the Idle Hour Farm for E. R. Bradley, has signed a contract to go to Australia as trainer for Andrew Robinson, of the Allendale Farm, near Melbourne. The contract is for three years. Mr. Robinson has purchased about thirty head of thoroughbreds and he will ship them along with several trotters yet to be purchased about October 15.

William Steele left here yesterday for Strafford, Pa., with twenty-five thoroughbred yearlings, the the three-year-old Eagle Thistle and Nellie Bly, dam of Round the World, Nellie Bly is in foal to Peep o'Day and is to be mated next spring with Bohemian Glass, an imported stallion that is now at Mr. Steele's place. Twenty of the yearlings are filies and Mr. Steele says it is his intention to mate them when they are mature with his horse. Homer Skirvin, Clarence Turner and Walter Andress are three boys who showed promise of ability in the saddle here last week. Skirvin is a Latonia lovy and is under contract to Hugh McCarren. Turner is an Indianapolis lad and is under contract to Thomas J. Shannon, trainer for Luke Le Blond, of Cincinnatt, and Andress is from Latonia and is under contract to Gallaher Brothers, of this city.

WET TRACK CONDITIONS AT TORONTO.

Big Crowd Turns Out in Spite of Threatening Weather and Is Well Rewarded.

Toronto, Ont., September 25.—The racing at by doubline this afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd, and results exceeded expectations. Five of the seven races furnished stirring finishes and in three of them the winners remained in doubt until the last few strides. The outlook at noon for good sport was none too good. Dark clouds overhang the track and threatened any minute to precipitate a deluge. Beore the racing began, however, the skies brightened and warm, pleasant weather prevailed for the remainder of the afternoon. The track was wet and heavy.

John W. Schorr furnished two of the winners in Edda and Hamilton, while Capt, W. F. Presgrave also saddled two, Bwana Tumbo and Ganogue, both of which are owned by Montreal turfmen. The former won the Lambton purse from a band of fair youngsters, while Ganogue got up in the final stride of a terrific stretch drive to beat Michael Angelo a neck in the Seagram Cup. Ganogue carried 118 pounds, which it was thought might be asking too much. She proved easily best, however, and overcame interference on the first turn, where she was crowded out of the running. Guy Burns had the nounts on Bwana Tumbo and Ganogue.

There were only five starters, but they were in a close bunch at the eleventh fence, where Expansionist went down. At the finish the other four were fighting it out, and Vilhalla, after making all of the pace, lasted to win by a neck from the west erner, Jimmy Lane.

My Gal, winner of the last race, which was claimed on Saturday and then returned to her former owner, M. C. Prichard, just did last to win the seventh race by a nose from Dulleare. She was promptly advanced from $500 to $1,000 by Sam Louis and J. W. Hedrick, at which figure she was sold to the latter. Mr. Hedrick also claimed Baby Wolf out of the first race for $920.

Capt. P. M. Walker reports that all of his two-year-olds were taken sick while en route from Montreal to Woodbine. Isidora and Bush have recovered, but Tahama is still suffering from fever.

Walter O. Parmer was among the visitors this afternoon. He came from Tennessee via Washington and New York, and he probably will remain for the balance of the meeting.

Myron McHenry, the well-known trotting horseman, is sick in the Harper Hospital in Detroit, where he has been confined for a week.

Capt. W. F. Presgrave purchased the two-year-olds Inspector Lestrade and Tu

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. F. Carman's horses have been transferred from Douglas Park to Churchill Downs.

Virtually all of the stables that raced at Lex-egton have been transferred to Louisville. Jule Garson's three-year-old chestnut-filly, Leah, died at Laurel Saturday of pneumonia contracted en route from Montreal.

A brother to Worth, in the stable of Gallaher Bros., is pronounced to be one of the best looking yearlings in Kentucky.

H. P. Whitney is on his way home from England. His trainer, A. J. Joyner, will not visit America the coming winter, according to report.

T. W. Flynn has shipped Lotta Creed, Home Run, Rubia, Granda, Azo, Bayerin, Starry Night, Ruisseau and other horses from Hawthorne to Louisville, Tod Cella, who is interested with Lon Johnson in Carlton G. and other horses, has arrived at Louis-

ANSWERS TO QUERIES. Y. P., North Tonawanda, N. Y. No account of matter has been kept.

the matter has been kept.

G. W. H., Danville, Ill. Usually as far back as there is space to spare for the purpose.

T. A. B., Joliet, Ill. There having been no coupled place price at the track, the bet was a draw.

Corbett, Chicago. The bet was a draw, there being no place price against the entry at the track. K. A. W., Cleveland, O. The same query was nswered to J. J. C. in Saturday's Daily Racing form. "If coming" bets were void.

$2.00 nutuels paid, Queen Marguerite, $8.10 straight, $4.30 place, $3.80 show; Emily Lee, $5.40 place, $4.30 show; Sam Barber (field), $8.80 show.
Equivalent booking odds—Queen Marguerite, 305 to 100 straight, 115 to 100 place, 90 to 100 show; Emily Lee, 170 to 100 place, 115 to 100 show; Sam Barber (field), 340 to 100 show.
Winner—Br. m. by Henry of Navarre—Sneerwell (trained by F. Starita), Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving.
QUEEN MARGUERITE was given a hustling ride and, taking the lead in the first ouarter, held the others safe for the rest of the way. EMILY LEE ran a good race and stood the final drive gamely.
SAM BARBER began slowly and gained steadily into a game third. ARCITE had no mishaps and tired in the stretch. WANDER ran well and suffered from interference in the first three-quarters. CAMEL was almost thrown on the first turn. SPALDING was kicked badly while at the post.

Overweights—Emily Lee, 3 pounds; Old Honesty, 2 pounds.

Equivalent booking odds—Sticker, 265 to 100 straight, 75 to 100 place, 50 to 100 show; Colonel Ashmeade, 40 to 100 show. Winner—B. f, by Yankee—Courtplaster (trained by J. Johnston). Went to post at 5:03. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. STICKER, lucky at the start, raced COLONEL ASHMEADE into defeat, but may have scored a lucky win. ANY FORT, probably best, was practically left at the post and, closing a big gap, was going fastest of all at the end. COLONEL ASHMEADE raced closely with the winner to the stretch and tired in the final drive. RAMAZAN was prominent throughout. MOCKLER was as good as left. MELTON STREET was hopelessly left and eased up in the first furlong.

Overweights—Ramazan, 5 pounds; Keep Moving, 1.
